Stuart Nigel Reid Wolfe

»ARABESQUE«

Dusk falls on the savannah as the day's heat slowly disappears, as the lion couple appear, moving out from the restful shade of trees, to view their flickering hunting grounds. The falcon, too, perched on a high seat, casts his eager eyes towards the evening breeze. Predators all, searching the horizon for movement of prey.

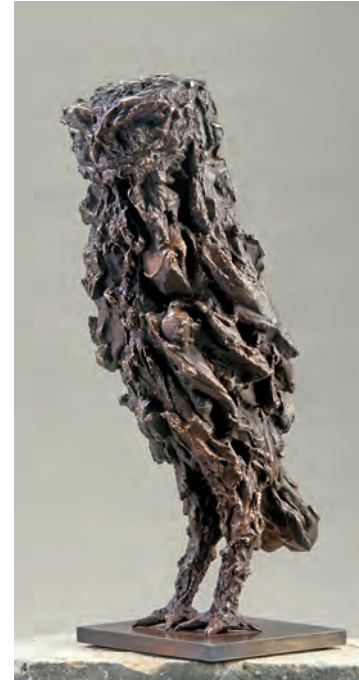

The book case "Arabesque" by the London artist Stuart N.R. Wolfe, entwines romantic European themes with illustrious motives of ornamented and oriental beauty.
